FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Area dogs are acting extra nice, hoping their owners will take them to this weekend's Doggy Dip Day

Sacramento, California, October 21, 2009—You may have noticed that “Fido” is acting a bit strange this week: bringing the newspaper to you instead of chewing it up, relieving himself outdoors instead of indoors, or being unnaturally nice to neighborhood cats. If this is the case, he is probably trying to get you to take him to this weekend’s Doggy Dip Day, which is being sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation, Aquatics Section.

Below are relevant details:

Event: 8th Annual Department of Parks and Recreation Doggy Dig Day
Fee: $5 per Dog
Dates: Saturday & Sunday, October 24 & 25
Times: 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. (Both Days)
Location: Pannell Meadowview Swimming Pool – 2450 Meadowview Road

Participating dogs must be accompanied by a human adult and that adult can only bring a maximum of three dogs to the event.

Pannell Meadowview Swimming Pool is a zero entry pool, making it extremely easy for dogs to enter and exit. Lifeguards will be on hand in the event any dog needs rescuing.

Media-related inquiries can be forwarded to Hindolo Brima, Media and Communications Specialist for the Department of Parks and Recreation, at (916) 622-8066.
