Free Water Wise House Calls Help Sacramento Residents Save Water

CITY OF SACRAMENTO
DEPARTMENT OF UTILITIES

A Free Water Wise House Call can help you save water and money!

Water is a valuable and precious resource. The City of Sacramento Department of Utilities' free Water Wise House Call service can help you find ways to save water inside and out!

During your Water Wise House Call, a water conservation specialist will come to your home and provide you with free tips and tools to save water. Your visit will include:

- Indoor water efficiency assessment
- Irrigation system check

Saving water can also help you save money! For metered rate customers, water savings at home can mean savings on your utility bill.

This service is free for Sacramento residents who receive a City of Sacramento water bill. For your free Water Wise House Call, please call 311 or (916) 264-5011. For more water conservation information, please visit online at our website: www.cityofsacramento.org/utilities.
